Councilwoman Turner-Lone Fight Update

Greetings, I would like to welcome all visitors, relatives and friends to the Mandaree Celebration. We look forward to having a great celebration. First of all, I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and relatives of Ceres Baker, Leeann Gonzales and Janai Rae Lone Bear on the loss of your loved one. I would also like to extend my prayers and sympathy to those families who have lost loved ones in other segments. Since I've been busy going around, it was unfortunate for myself that I got covid, I was quarantined for twelve days. I am much better now we have had some cases here at the Water Chief Hall. I recommend people to keep wearing masks, covid is not gone! Its still among us so we need to take precautions.

I've been very busy trying to complete projects one in particular the store which I am very proud to say is open now. We had a great line up on our agenda, I was very happy of how the grand opening was handled. A special thank you to all Mandaree Segment employees for all the hard work you do for the community and such an amazing job you did for the community today for the Wolf Chief & More store. You made me so proud I can't thank you all enough.

We had a real nice grand opening for the Wolf Chief Grocery Store, the Hay Draw café is under construction. Thrive & Vive Drinks and Treats, the Emergency Closet and the jump house. Everything went well, we fed everyone who came to witness the grand opening. We had a grand entry led by our Post, along with our guest speaker North Dakota Representative Ruth Ann Buffalo District 27. In all that we do for any doings we have an opening prayer that was offered by our tribal elder Martha Bird Bear. Having our colors is another part of our doings. Post 271

Myron Johnson & Nathan J. Goodiron. It was during this time that I honored the Veterans with a star quilt; from Left to right; Lester Crowsheart, Jimmy Johnson, Councilwoman, Patrick Dubois, Aaron Abbey and Bruce Freeman were all on hand to help with the grand entry here for the grand opening. Oh God Be Merciful To Me!

Regarding certain persons who consider themselves to be just while distaining others, Jesus, in the Gospel of Luke 18: 9-14, told this parable: “Two men ascended to the temple in order to pray. One was a Pharisee and the other was a tax collector. Looking up standing, the Pharisee prayed within himself in this way. ‘Oh God, I give to you that I am not like the rest of men, unjust, robbers, adulterers even as this Tax Collector chooses to be. I fast twice between Sabbaths and give tithes from all I possess.’ The Tax Collector standing at a distance was not even willing to lift his eyes toward heaven. But he struck his chest saying, ‘Oh God be merciful to me a sinner.’ “I say to you this one descended to his house justified, but not the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.”

This is a favorite gospel of mine, because to me, it shows the simplicity of God-I am referring to the Tax Collector’s prayer. The Tax Collector asks God for His mercy on himself. In this gospel, Jesus is redirecting us to God’s mercy.

The Tax Collector is very aware of his sin and actions that made him a sinner. He is also aware of the love that God has for him. The Pharisee, on the other hand, is full of pride. He begins his prayer by comparing himself to others. He states; “Oh I am not that bad, at least I am not like them”. Then he brags to himself about fasting and giving tithes.

We as human beings are naturally inclined to sin. We became wounded by original sin, the sin of Adam and Eve. Remember after they heard God coming, they ran and hid. In this Gospel, the Pharisee is standing and looking up when he prayed. The Tax Collector, when he prayed, did not even look up, and stood at a distance.

I like this gospel because it gives me hope in God’s mercy. I am not a perfect person and I am prone to sin. I have also become more aware of the mercy and love that God has just for me and especially for those who choose to believe in him. “Every Saint has a past” and through the mercy of God; “Every sinner has a future”. (Oscar Wilde)

Have a great day with Jesus Christ

Dem-NPL Challenger Lisa Finley-DeVille Wins Primary for District 4A House

First, I thank and acknowledge Thomasina Mandan for running for District 4A House, we know the difficulties and challenges we face running for any office.

Thank you to all who voted for me in the June primary election, I am grateful for your support. I'm very excited to move forward to the November 8th, General Election.

The journey to gain our own legislative seat with Native representation has been difficult but it is now a reality. Though we are in a legal battle over the redistricting of District 4, we know how much power comes with this position. Which is why we must continue to fight for our own representation. Our voices must be included at every decision-making table so that we will have a voice for our future.

As Mandan, Hidatsa, and Arikara people, we will continue to work together to find upstream solutions for our communities. I am not against oil and gas, but I believe we can do a better job at protecting the environment and our health. We have also learned the hard lesson of human trafficking and the increasing epidemic of Missing Murdered Indigenous People (MMIP). We need to hold true to our values and continue to seek responsible development and keep all our relatives safe.

Thank you again to the voters of District 4A, during this pandemic, it hasn't been easy for any of us. But know that with your vote and support anything is possible and we will take our voice to the Capitol when I win. Please stay engaged and stay involved. Contact me to find out how you can help my campaign. We have a lot of work to do, I could not get this far without you, together we can make it happen come November 2022. I encourage your friends and family to get to the polls for the General Election.

Letter to the Editor

On June 30, 2022 the Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) handed down their decision in West Virginia, at al. v EPA ruling to limit the Environmental Protection Agency's authority to regulate greenhouse gasses and other harmful pollutants. The Court should never have taken this case as it was challenging a clean air regulation that was not being used and so there was no need for enforcement...or a SCOTUS ruling! A majority of global citizens recognize what this SCOTUS does not seem to: climate change is real and we need fewer barriers to government actions that would curtail emissions directly contributing to man-made climate change.

As a citizen of the Mandan, Hidatsa, and Arikara Nation, and founding member of Fort Berthold Protectors of Water and Earth Rights, we have been fighting for stronger regulations that protect our land, air, and water for more than a decade. Like every impacted community member, I've seen the environmental disaster and harm that's done due to failure of regulatory oversight. The SCOTUS decided in favor of money and big business and against people – not only this generation but the generations to follow. Our world is on fire with climate change and this decision ignores that fact. We are forced to carry the burden of externalized production when companies force us to breathe, eat, and drink their pollution. Once again, Indigenous communities like mine are treated as a commodity to be extracted rather than treated as human beings in a natural world that both deserve to be protected.

I am not against oil and gas or fossil fuel development. I am against development without any concern for our environment and our health. There are ways to develop that are respectful to Mother Earth and all life. This decision is a disaster for my community, all who live near coal plants (like I and so many North Dakotans do,) and all who are and will suffer from the effects of climate change. In other words, this decision will hurt every one of us. When will big business and the politicians in their pockets learn that, to paraphrase a Cree prophecy, "...you can't eat money."

Obituary

Madeline Cerese (Mason) Baker was born to Michael Mason Sr., and Carolette (Smith) Mason on October 31, 1945, in rural Mandaree, North Dakota. She was delivered at home by her grandmother Phoebe Wolfhead Smith, a well-known midwife in the community. Madeline, or Cerese, as most knew her had two names, an honor given to people held in high regard by their communities. She held the Hidatsa name "Naa Axx Piihe'-Long Hair (Horse Mane), and a Mandan name, Mataaxopini' Opus meaning the diamond pattern on the back of a rattlesnake. She was a member of the Miri Padi, or Waterbuster Clan, and a daughter of the AwaXee Naawida/Dripping Earth Clan. Cerese grew up in a household of Hidatsa speakers and was raised very close to her clan kinship ways, customs, and ceremonies, and spoke her language fluently. She was a woman of deep faith and observed her Waterbuster lifeways as she had been taught by her parents.

Cerese attended school in Mandaree until her teenage years, at which point she moved to Sante Fe, New Mexico, and attended Santa Fe Indian School, which eventually became the Institute of American Indian Arts. She was an outstanding softball player, basketball player, and skilled horse rider. She loved to hit the dance floor at the sock hop, listening to Motown, Elvis, the Beatles, Fats Domino, Ritchie Valens, and classic country. Attending Santa Fe opened her eyes to a broad world of arts and music which she brought home with her when she eventually returned to Mandaree and graduated from Mandaree High School in 1963. She subsequently attended school to become a dental assistant. Cerese worked throughout communities on Fort Berthold as an administrative assistant, a librarian, and a certified nursing assistant. Cerese was very well known for her outstanding work ethics and pouring herself into whatever work she took on, including her many volunteers ventures providing service back to her people.

Cerese met Emerson Baker while they were both working at Mandaree School, and they married in 1967. To this union were born five children: Enos, Marle, Scott, Twyla, and Blair. Cerese was the ultimate sports mom. When she was not volunteering her time in the community, she was spending time raising her children and following them to their sporting events, driving to practices, supporting teams, and cheering in the stands. She supported the New Town Eagles well into her elder years, as she continued to follow her grandchildren in their athletic pursuits as well. She was deeply proud of all her children and grandchildren's achievements, both personal and professional. She believed in higher education and proudly watched as her children gained degrees.

Cerese held a special place for emergency responders as her sons, grandsons, granddaughters, and other relatives were firefighters. She started the annual 4th of July Firefighters Feed with just a grill and a few salads, and it grew into an event the firefighters could look forward to for nearly 20 years, supported by her family members and other community members.

She carried a deep sense of service and work ethic throughout you life, which she passed on to her children and grandchildren. "If you got time to lean, you got time to clean" was her work motto, and she spent years providing it, working at the Four Bears Motor Lodge, the New Town Nursing Home and eventually ending up in retail at Flying J, Superpumper, and then Four Bears C-Store. She believed that there was no shame in hard work, and though she held supervisory positions, you would often find her cleaning. Cerese spent much of her retirement in service, as was her way. She found sisterhood in the Ladies Auxiliary Unit 300 and spent many happy days bringing back veterans and doing service work on their behalf, in honor of her uncles and brothers who had served. She enjoyed visiting with her friends at elder's events in town and throughout the reservation and loved a drive to Minot to have a meal and shop. She frequented pow wows to hear her sons, nephews and brothers sing, especially her brother Clyde Smith and his sons. Cerese cherished her family and extended family, and never acknowledged cousins, only more brothers and sisters, as was proper for Hidatsa families. She was a mother, aunt, sister, and grandmother to so many, including several adopted children and grandchildren.

Cerese is survived by her brother Matthew "Screech" Mason, sister Lyda Bearstail, sons; Enos (Bethany), Marle (Mary), and Blair (Jena), and her daughters Twyla, Angle Palmersheim (Brandon), Edie Whitehorse, Marietta Heart (Nelson), Amber Finley, Ruth Ann Buffalo (Brian), Prairie Rose Seminole, Dakota Seminole, Kelly McGrady (Jason), several grandchildren, one great-grandchild, and many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents; Michael Mason Sr., and Carolette (Smith) Mason, and her siblings; Michael Mason Jr., Vivian Doris Jetty, Winston Mason, Colette Goodiron, Winona Arlie Mason, Wallace Mason, Frederick Mason, Wesley Mason, Quentin Mason, an infant girl Mason, and her son Noel Scott Baker. Her legacy of love and compassion lives on in all the lives she touched and she will be missed dearly by all those who loved her as she makes her way back to her family members who have gone on.

Obituary

Leeann Rose Gonzalez was born November 28th, 1990 to Christine Ann White Owl Gonzalez and Trinidad R. Gonzalez. She had many nicknames but the one that stuck throughout her childhood was Chicken. She was the baby of the family, and she loved all the attention that was given to her by all members of our large family. When Leann was about a month old, she was the center of attention when she played baby Jesus in the high school nativity Christmas program. She was the prime focus for the night, and she didn't let out one cry.

She grew up and attended school here in Mandaree until she was 16 years old, when she went to Job Corp in Minot, ND. While in Job Corp she received her GED and worked towards getting her cosmetology certification. Leann talked family into being her guinea pigs the first several months of school, so I am sure if you ask around, they will have some good stories to tell.

Leann never had children of her own, but she loved and helped raise her sister Francine's four children; (Angelica, Aaron Jr, Anthony, and Ariel). Each of the kids have stated that they will love, cherish and hold dear to their hearts every memory throughout the years. They remember the many camping trips, state fairs and her full hearted laughs.

Chicken was always a curious and adventurous child/adult who pulled out all the stops in living her life to the fullest. Whenever Leann was in the area you could always find her by her infection laugh. She was always laughing and making jokes. Leeann could always brighten any room she entered.

All of Leeann's family can share some stories of some of the goofy situations and jokes she put them in. Leann enjoyed pulling practical jokes on the people especially her older sisters, and the more she can embarrass them the better. She was always a joy to be around, and her sense of humor will be greatly missed. It didn't matter how old Leann was she was always a big kid at heart.

Leeann was also very kindhearted and would always try to help people even if it meant giving the last dollar she had.

In Leeann's short time on this earth, she touched so many hearts and lives. Leeann was also so damn fearless and would face any situation head on.

She is survived by; Mother Christine White Owl, Brother: Benner White Owl (Ona Lee Johnson). Nieces; Angelica, Ariel, Pricillaz, KayDyn and Elliona. Nephews; Aaron, Anthony, James, and Alliaz. Aunts; Rosie White Owl of Mandaree, ND, Rosealie Cortez of Eagle Pass, TX, Dora Gonzalez of Para, OK, Irene Gonzales of Eagle Pass, TX, Panchita Gonzales of Eagle Pass, TX, Gladys Sherry Lone Fight of Mandaree, ND. Uncles; Paul White Owl Sr of Mandaree, ND, Frank White Owl Jr., of Mandaree, ND, Samuel White Owl of Mandaree, ND, Daniel Gonzalez of Eagle Pass, TX, David Gonzales of Eagle Pass, TX. Many other relatives too numerous to name.

She is preceded in death by: Father Trinidad R. Gonzales, Sister; Francine (White Owl) Wolf, Maternal Grandparents; Frank White Owl Sr., and Nina (Turner) White Owl, Paternal Grandparents; Juan B. Gonzales & Jesusita Rodriguez Salazar. Aunts; Pauline White Owl, Hazel (White Owl) Felix, Gladys (White Owl) Black Hawk, Emma (White Owl) Finley, Connie (White Owl) White Body, Francis (White Owl) Swift Eagle, Nancy (White Owl) Mingus, Theresa (White Owl) Blanco-Bautista. Uncles; Juan Gonzalez Jr, Armando Gonzalez.

The family thanks you for the thoughts and prayers.

Obituary

Janai Rae Jean Lone Bear entered the world on October 3, 2003 at the Tacoma General Hospital in Tacoma, Washington to LaToya Lone Bear. She was raised the majority of her life by her grandma (mom) Verna and grandpa LeRoy (papa) in Mandaree, North Dakota. She graduated from Mandaree High School on May 21, 2022. She also participated in basketball and volleyball.

There are so many words that describe Janai. She was one of the most loving and selfless people you could meet. She was loyal and was always looking out for others. She was strong-minded and very blunt. She always said what was on her mind, she had the most contagious laugh and the best humor. Her presence was very comforting and she lit up any room that she walked into.

She was nonjudgmental and was the person to go to for comfort and advice. She always found joy in doing things for people she loved. Starting at a young age Janai stepped up and took on the motherly role of raising her younger siblings whom she loved very much. She was the rock of her family and everyone close to her.

We are losing a daughter, granddaughter, sister and an amazing friend who was loved so much and will be missed more than words can describe.

She is survived by her mother; LaToya Lone Bear, Texas, Brothers; Omareant Russell, Tacoma, Washington, Royce JD Lone Bear, Mandaree, ND. Sisters; Maralee Lone Bear and Summer Leigh Russell of Las Vegas, Nevada. Grandma- Verna Lone Bear, Mandaree, ND and Grandpa LeRoy White Singer, Mandaree, ND. Uncles; Tyrone Lone Bear, New Town, ND, Marlon Lone Bear, Church's Ferry, West Virginia and many other cousins and other relatives.
