FERPA Release Authorization

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99) is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education.

FERPA gives parents certain rights with respect to their children's education records. These rights transfer to the student when he or she reaches the age of 18 or attends a school beyond the high school level. Students to whom the rights have transferred are "eligible students."

The MHA Education Grant staff must have written permission from the eligible student in order to release any information from a student's education record.

I, _____, consent ____ do not consent ____ to the release of my MHA Education Grant records to my parent(s), guardian(s), or other entities listed below for the purpose of keeping them informed about my MHA Education Grant information. I understand that MHA Education Grant records include, but are not limited to, information about my academic standing, disciplinary issues, and financial obligations to my educational institution.

I acknowledge that I may submit a subsequent notification in writing directing the MHA Education Grant to no longer release information to any or all of the individuals listed below.

The MHA Education Grant is authorized to release information to the following individuals: (please print clearly)
