Councilwoman Turner-Lone Fight Update

Greetings to everyone far and near. Before I begin this update, I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the Kyle Grady family and relatives. Prayers for each of you as you go through this difficult time. I would like to extend my sincere sympathy to other segments who have lost loved ones.

We had such a terrible storm here in North Dakota, people in Mandaree were snowed in their homes. There was no travel in the state. I would like to thank all who helped out during the winter storms. Many community individuals put in long hours the community appreciates their help very much.

This month is always a very busy month for parents, and grandparents as we will be making our way to graduations. So with that in mind, I would like to take this moment to congratulate the Mandaree High School Class of 2022! Also congratulations to the 8th grade class as they make their transition into high school. We wish you the best in your future endeavors! Congratulations to the Mandaree Little Plume Head Start kids our future leaders. All the couples who attended this year's prom were all so amazing. Photos are pages 10-12.

Dear Elders, I would like you to know that West Segment is looking into installing Generac generators. After this bad winter storm we had everyone was losing power. West Segment's new department Special Projects will soon be going to elder's homes who live out in the country to do an assessment. Home inside power supply needs to be sized correctly for these generators. Applications for part time pool are now being accepted for 20 hours a week, contact Bernadine Fredericks Mendez at 421-5687.

The main goal for West Segment Parks & Recreation is to keep the youth healthy, drug and alcohol free. To give the youth some place to feel safe and do positive activities. Walking path through the woods. Garden project on highway 22. This program has been very busy with activities if you have any questions or want your child involved contact LeeAnna Nation at 421-1868.

Just to let everyone know the speed bumps were removed so the Roads Department could open the roads up when we had our winter storm. Speed bumps should be going back up once the weather clears. 2022 Designer of the Year Award Norma Baker Flying Horse

Norma Baker-Flying Horse (Hidatsa, Dakota Sioux and Assiniboine) earned the coveted title of Designer of the Year with her 10-piece Red Berry Woman collection.

Phoenix- Norma Baker Flying Horse, founder of Red Berry Woman, was chosen among three other designers as Phoenix Fashion Week's Designer of the Year at the Chanteaux Luxe. She was one of two indigenous fashion designers chosen by the organization to participate in a 3-month bootcamp that challenged participants with a curriculum designed to advance each designer's business in the fashion industry.

"I'm beyond happy to receive this recognition," said Flying Horse to Native News Online. "Thank you to my family, supporters, and the Phoenix Fashion Week for this incredible opportunity."

As a result of being chosen as Designer of the Year, Flying Horse will be promoted by Agency Arizona, a marquee modeling and talent agency that will promote Red Berry Woman to international markets.

Red Berry Woman is also Norma's Dakota name, and the business strives to incorporate traditional designs with contemporary couture garments that are ready to wear for both women and men. Norma Baker Flying Horse is an enrolled member of the Hidatsa tribe from the Ft. Berthold Indian Reservation and also Dakota Sioux and Assiniboine. Her clothing and designs pay homage to her cultural heritage. Her opening featured a dance demonstration by fancy shawl and northern traditional buckskin dancers.

Each year, organizers of the popular fashion event travel across the country to search for emerging designers to apply for Phoenix Fashion Week's challenging 3-month designer bootcamp. This was Phoenix Fashion Week's first event since the beginning of the pandemic, more than 2 years ago.

"My Phoenix Fashion Week team and I were so impressed with Norma's business first vision, hard work, and obvious keen eye for design. Red Berry Woman is blazing their own fashion forward cultural trail that our industry will have to try to catch up to," Brian Hill, Executive Director, Phoenix Fashion Week.

"I'm so proud of her," said Elmer Flying Horse, Norma's husband, when Norma was chosen as Designer of the Year. "All of her work and sacrifice was all worth it." The Flying Horse family drove from the Fort Berthold Indian Reservation in North Dakota during a blizzard that crippled most of the state for several days.

The Phoenix Fashion Week predominantly featured Indigenous culture in this year's program. Saturday's opening act Indigenous Enterprise, an Indigenous dance troupe that's performing at the Met Gala later this year. In 2021, Indigenous Enterprise performed in the "Virtual Parade" for the Presidential Inauguration of Joe Biden.

The Phoenix Fashion Week is a curated two-day event that showcases models, designers, and fashion in the premier fashion event in the Southwest. The organization chose 40 models, female and male, to walk the runway for eight fashion shows a day in the chosen designers clothing.

West Segment Events & Recreation Department Offers Mother's Day Gift making at the Hall

Photos by LeeAnna Nation/Tiffany Hall

For some of us who can say we haven't experienced this opportunity. An opportunity to make something on your own for your mother for Mother's Day. Thanks to the West Segment Events and Recreation Department who sponsored this event. The department furnished all the supplies and they even had snacks for those who showed up. Renay Brown and Lorraine Howe were on hand to help the kids create their own special gift. Gifts for their mothers, grandmother, or aunts. They gathered in the hall most of the afternoon until the youth were done. This event turned out good. The kids had their choice of who supplies to use to make their special gifts. Some as you can see here to your left these two girls made a special cake for their mothers day gifts. This was a great opportunity for these kids to learn how to put something special together. Special thanks to the West Segment Events program for doing this for our youth.

West Segment Honors Mothers Day with a Walk/Run

It was a good day outdoors when West Segment honored mothers with a walk/run. Each segment within the MHA Nation all honored mothers with the same walk/run. For West Segment it turned out good. They started out with an honor song than began the walk/run. The first fifty mothers who came all received a gift and all walk/run participants got t-shirts.

Sheila Jenner walked for her mother the late Wanda Sheppard. Gloria Fast Dog walked in honor of her mother Arline Charing.

There were a lot who walked/run for their beloved ones who have passed and for those mothers who are still here.

Our Mandaree Meal site cooks participated in the walk/run as well. They both walked for their mothers.

Bismarck Office Shares Easter With Us

Photos and captions submitted by Leah Black Hawk

On behalf of the Bismarck office we wanted to share our Easter pictures. We made sixty Easter baskets for the youth and we made fifteen easter baskets for the elders.

We gave twenty five Easter baskets out and one elder Easter basket away. It was very unfortunate this year because we had an unexpected snow storm so that made a difference in our give away of Easter baskets.

Since the storm we extended our Easter basket give away to the following week when our weather was better.

The Easter baskets that we had left over we donated them to the Native American Development Center here in Bismarck.

Pictured to your left is Cheryl Fox who stopped by to pick up her Easter Basket along with the Easter Bunny.

We hope you enjoy the Easter pictures that we are sharing with you.

CJ O'Berry with the Easter bunny picking up his baskets.

Pictured to your left is Leah Black Hawk who was the Easter bunny standing with her husband Calvin Black Hawk. On behalf of the Bismarck office despite the storm they hope everyone had a wonderful Easter with your families.

Lisa Finley-DeVille will Seek Election to District 4A North Dakota State House Seat

2022 Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

May 2, 2022

CONTACT:

Lisa Finley-DeVille, ND District 4A House Candidate
701-421-8020 | lisadevillecampaign.20@gmail.com

Lisa Finley-DeVille will seek election to District 4A North Dakota State House Seat

Lisa Finley-DeVille will run as Democratic-NPL

(Mandaree, ND) – Lisa Finley-DeVille to seek the District 4A House seat Democratic-NPL to the North Dakota Legislature.

Lisa is stepping up to bring stronger leadership on behalf of ND District 4A communities in Bismarck. Lisa is committed to listening to her neighbors and working every day. K-12 education funding, affordable access to healthcare, ensuring we diversify our state's economy are very important but not enough attention has been given to the issues that matter most to not only my family and me but for the future generations:

- *Landowners, Farmers and Ranchers Rights must be Protected.
- *Environmental Protections and Public Health
- *Natural Resources; Clean Air, Clean Water and Healthy Soil

“The Bakken oil and gas development has brought much environmental, health and social impacts that has changed our way of life. We must protect our water, land, and air but also educate the people on the aftermath of rampant oil and gas development. We need to hold decision-makers accountable for allowing companies to have more rights than those of us who choose to live in our rural areas. Power must be in the hands of the people, not a select few.”

Lisa Finley-DeVille, Maheahzah Ahgawgish (Accomplishes Everything) has lived her whole life in Mandaree, North Dakota on Fort Berthold Reservation. She is a citizen of the Mandan, Hidatsa, and Arikara Nation. She and her husband Walter Sr. have five children and seven grandbabies. Her parents are Marcia White Eagle and the late Robert “Bobby” Finley Sr. (Veteran who served in the Army). Her Maternal Grandparents are the late Thomas and Julia (Mandan-Charging) White Eagle. Her paternal grandparents are the late Evan and Louise (Black Hawk-Huber) Finley Sr. Over the last 12 years, Lisa has volunteered and advocated on issues that protect the future of North Dakota. Before her volunteer work, she has helped build home ownership and renovation programs on Fort Berthold Reservation for 13 years.

Lisa was recognized in November 2017 as one of the “Eight Native American Leaders Working for Climate Justice” by Nexus Climate (Nexus Media). In 2015 Lisa received the North Dakota Human Rights Arc of Justice Award, and the Gillette/Baker Achievement Award. Lisa also served on the National Environmental Justice Advisory Council (NEJAC) in Washington, D.C. that works to “provide advice and recommendations about broad, cross-cutting issues related to environmental justice, from all stakeholders involved in the environmental justice dialogue. In addition, the NEJAC provides a valuable forum for discussions about integrating environmental justice with other EPA priorities and initiatives.”

Lisa is a co-founder and creator of grassroots group the Fort Berthold Protectors of Water and Earth Rights (POWER). She serves on the Dakota Resource Council (DRC) Board of Directors. She served on Western Organization of Resource Council (WORC) Board of Directors and member of DRC Oil and Gas Task Force, all groups that work on responsible energy development in Western North Dakota. She served on the Vision West ND Project Consortium. Until her declared candidacy for District 4A House, Lisa served as vice-president of North Dakota Native Vote, a grassroots organization that builds power for North Dakota's tribal communities.

Over the years Lisa has testified on her experience of living with oil and gas to North Dakota State government, the United States Federal government, Mandan, Hidatsa, and Arikara Tribal Government and to the United Nations on many issues such as environmental protections (policy and regulations) and health, social issues, taxes, and protecting women and children.

Lisa received her Master of Business Administration and Master of Management from the University of Mary. Lisa received her Bachelor of Science in Environmental Science, an Associate of Science in Science, and an Associate of Applied Science in Information Management Specialist from Nueta, Hidatsa, and Sahnish College.

For Your Information

Reminders

Greetings! Would you consider yourself to be the type of person who is easily distracted? Or maybe you are the type of person who has that laser focus to not be distracted at all. Either way, there are pros and cons to both characteristics. If for example, you are easily distracted, you may miss the point of a discussion or presentation.

Whereas if you tend to be laser focused on the point of a discussion or presentation, you may miss the details leading to that point. Okay...so what? What is the point of this example? There isn't a point to this example. Just a subtle reminder that we as human beings have been created with varying behavioral characteristics. All be it created in the image and likeness of our Creator (God). Created, nonetheless, with individual characteristics. Creation just would not work if we, as created human beings, were alike. God knows this, after all He is God. This may be the reason why God has given us "reminders". Reminders to help us remember who God is and what God has done and is doing for us. Reminders to help us remember that God is very much alive and present here with us. Regardless of what distractions may exist in our lives. So then, what of these "reminders"; what are they and where can we find them? Well, they are all around us. We can and do experience them to varying degrees, during various situations whether we are aware or not. Here are just a few examples of "reminders" given to us...the stars in the sky, the sands on the seashore, light, dark, wheat, weeds, rain, fire, wind (everyone's favorite reminder), fruit, bread, fish, thirst, stones, rock (my special favorite reminder). There are many, many more. Should you be inclined to check out the source of these and the many more reminders given us from God the Father, you will need to do this one thing...read bible scripture. Yes, read bible scripture. Contained within the words of scripture are these "reminders" that existed when scripture was first recorded and continue to exist today. The hope is when you look at the stars in the sky or see a field of wheat or you are thirsty, that you will be reminded of how God is very much alive and working in your lifetime. And that that should result in a closer personal relationship with God.

Message From Veteran Dawn White

Powwow/Celebration Season is fast approaching and after these past years looking forward to the celebrations at home.

As a Veteran and former Flag Bearer for one of our celebrations I want to address this:

When we as Veterans get chosen to be Flag Bearers for our respective celebrations on Fort Berthold one of our responsibilities is to ask families to raise the flag of one of our dear departed comrades.

This is an honor for that flag to be flown at the celebration. To hear their songs being sung, hear the announcer tell stories of the ones being flown and the list of their deeds as a warrior and how they were as a person in life. It's to always remember our WARRIORS and their legacy. My Grandmas said to never forget our Warriors...

Our modern day celebrations have evolved from our Warrior Societies and the teachings of those societies. One of the teachings is generosity to the people, especially the vulnerable of the tribe. Our Warriors always provided protection and meat to those very ones.

Today when these Veterans come ask to raise the flag of our dear departed Warriors it is an HONOR!.. My Grandparents would tell me when ones come ask you to do something you should never say no cause it takes a lot for them to ask.

Families donate or feed, some families don't know or were never taught the ways of our respective tribal ways to honor and will ask what should I do? I always say the best that you can do for people.. if all you have is one blanket than that's the best for you, cause your family will always help you.

More and more I'm hearing from fellow Veterans how hard it is to ask families or flags lost. Some Veterans their flags have never been flown. Families just out right refuse. Sad that our ways are eroding and these honors are fading.

But I will say this; ALWAYS REMEMBER OUR VETERANS, OUR WARRIORS!!!!

When these Flag Bearers ask, please don't refuse to honor our Warriors!
